Academy for Dance Studies

In order to prepare for the Recital, the following is a schedule of rehearsals for the classes that will be performing together in the Recital. This will help to alleviate any confusion that could occur at dress rehearsal and the show. This way the dancers are comfortable with the sharing of the stage. I understand this may be inconvenient but I would appreciate you making your best effort to bring your child to the class, it will be very beneficial to them. Please note, their classes will still be running as usual that week.
